Paris, Washington DC, 16.11.2022, 12:29 Time

USPA NEWS - The President of the French Republic, Emmanuel Macron, traveled to Bali, in the Republic of Indonesia, from Monday November 14 to Wednesday November 16, 2022 as part of the G20 Leaders' Summit. During the Summit, the President of the Republic was able to meet with several Heads of State and Government. During this G20, President Emmanuel Macron recalled the necessary unity of the world. This is the main message sent by the G20 leaders to the international community. President Macron thanked his counterparts « I would first like to thank Indonesian President Joko Widodo for organizing this G20 summit and for bringing us all together here in Bali. I also take this opportunity to thank the entire population, I know the constraints posed by such meetings. I salute this respect the major role that Indonesia is playing this year for peace and multilateralism and for holding this G20. »

PRES. MACRON HAD SEVEVERAL BILATERAL MEETINGS IN G20 INCLUDING CHINESE PRES. XI JINPING & TURKISH PRES. ERDOGAN

President Macron thanked his counterparts « I would first like to thank Indonesian President Joko Widodo for organizing this G20 summit and for bringing us all together here in Bali. I also take this opportunity to thank the entire population, I know the constraints posed by such meetings. I salute this respect the major role that Indonesia is playing this year for peace and multilateralism and for holding this G20. " "We all knew it was a tough G20, and we knew the talks would be obviously impacted by the political context of the war in Ukraine. And the news of hours has once again shown us the extreme sensitivity of the situation. In this regard, I have been able to speak in recent hours and again a few minutes ago to the Polish authorities. I presented our condolences to them for the victims of the missile fire which reached the territory Polish yesterday. I told them of my solidarity, and we expressed our commitment alongside the Poland to put us in a position to be fully clear on these shots. Analyzes are in course, we are cooperating with Poland to find out exactly what happened and we are doing with all the allies with whom we met this morning. » President Macron said

President Macron traveled to Bali to attend the G20, first and then the APEC Summit in Thailand. Upon his arrival, the French Head of State multiplied bilateral meetings with other leaders, starting with his Indonesian counterpart Joko Widodo, host of the place, then Chinese President Xi Jinping, just after the meeting with American President Joe Biden, and its Chinese counterpart. Also, after the final G20 press conference, President Macron spoke with Anthony Albanese, the Australian PM on the sidelines of the G20, on Wednesday 16 November, with whom "he discussed the explosions in Poland and agreed to stay in close contact so that light is shed on the events. They actually reaffirmed their solidarity with their Polish allies. "The two leaders welcomed the spirit of harm and consultation that prevails between France and Australia, as well as with their other partners and allies on the war in Ukraine and its global consequences.
